REPORTS.

Advance, in the Java Scalbound to Shanghai.

From Messys. Win. Spoliswoode & Co.'s Circular, Singapora Jan. 21st.

The demand for shipping for the rice trade, though not so active as during the preceding fortnight, has continued very fair, but the number of disongaged vessels having increased, over 521 cents cannot readily be got to load at Rangoon for this, nor over 55 from Bassein. Tonnage for China is wanted, and the last rates paid, 60 conts bence to Hougkong or 85 cents direct to Ningpo or Shanghai, would we think be repeated. The current freights to London and Liverpool are £3 surement cargo, at which rates a cargo could be fixed for Liverpool. The following charters have

Der West, Brom., 560 tons, 55 conts per picul

HONGKONG RACES We are requested to state that Tickets for admission to the "Grand Stand" are now ready for delivery, and Subscribers may have them by applying to the Honorary Treasurer at the Agra Bank.

To-Mornow and next day, on account the Races, we shall issue only slips containing | pases. For Dock Charges, or further particulars, apply shipping, intelligence, any news that may as may be necessary, together of course with the Race returns. On Saturday the regular issue will appear late, so as to embrace everything that may have been omitted.

> An alteration has been made this year in the conditions on which the tickets for the Grand Stand enclosure are issued. The subscription is as before $5, and the price of a ticket to non-subscribers $0-but instead of ladies being admitted free as heretofore, they require tickets, just as gentlemen do. For lady visitors, tickets can be obtained for one dollar, but no privilege is granted to 'gentlemen visitors. We see no objection whatever to this alteration, but the contrary. We think however it should have been announced

In Commodore Perry's narrative of the ex- Inches square pedition under his command to the China seas and Japan, is contained the following extract relative to the Bonin Islands.

In 1830, several Americans and Europeans came to the Bonins from the Sandwich Islands, accompanied by various natives-men and women of that country The leaders of this advanture were five men, two originally from the United States - Nathaniel Savory and Aldin B. Chapin, of Massachusettsone from lingland of the name of Richard Mildtchamp, one, Charles Johnson, of Denmark, and the fifth a Genoese known as Matheo Mazara. The only one of these remaining on the island during the visit of Commodore Perry was Nathaneil Savory, an American. Mildtehamp still survives, but has taken up his residence at Guam. one of the Ladrone Islands. The Genoese, Mazara, is dead, and Savory has married his widow, a pretty and young native of Guam, by whom he has offspring. Savory occupies himself with the culture of a little farm, which is telerably productive. He also carries on a trade in sweet potatoes of his own raising and in a rum of his own distil- U in 2 doz. cases. lation from sugar cane, with the whaling ships | Meunessy's Fine Old Pale Brandy, in 1 doz which frequent the place; and he had prosecuted his business with such success as to accumulate, at one time, several thousands of dollars. These he deposited in the ground, when, some there or four years since, a schooner arrived under the American flag, bringing a few worthless scoundrels, who ingratiated themselves, under the pre- ly use. tence of great friendship with the old man, who was thus induced to make them the confidents of his success, and of its proof which he had stored away. These villains, after living for several months on terms of great intimacy and confidence with Savory, left the Island, having first robbed their benefactor of all his money, despoiled his household of a couple of young women, whom they took away with them, carried off his journal, and wantonly injured his property. Fortunately for justice, the guilty parties were afterwards arrested at Honoluin, but the captive women expressed themselves quite contented with their ot, and declared that they had no desire to return. As for the money, it was not learned whether that was ever recovered or not.

This statement is not quite correct, and we have been desired by Mr. N. Savory, through a friend who has lately arrived from the ed) from the date of the second pay, Bonin Islands, to point out the inaccuracies. Mr Savory left the Sandwich Islands and mongery and House Pittings, Mechanic's Tools, settled at the Bonins in 1830. The scoundlers who robbed him were not Americans at all. The occurrence took place in this wise. In the early days of California, the gold fever raged particularly strong in Hongkong, and all sorts and conditions of men rushed ever from this, in all sorts and conditions of craft. (small sizes for families) every Overland Mail. Lorchus, small partially decked vachts, condemned bulks, and to speak figuratively, anything that would float. For a few years prior deived on Storage on board the Store Ship "Sato those days, there was a man in these oah," (late "Tropic.") waters named Barker-a Dane we believe, a bold reckless man, who obtained his living by smuggling Opium. He owned a lorcha called the St. Andrew, and two cutters or schooner's which had been vachts: He was attacked with the prevailing mania, and departed for San Francisco with his three craft, accompanied by such spirits as would naturally be acquainted with such a man. These three vessels. were all under British colors, and on their way to San Francisco, in August 1849, called at the Bonin Islands, where they were received with the utmost hospitality by Mr. Savory, and when they conducted themselves in a becoming and proper manner. They remained a short time, refitting &c., and then left for the thorough Working Order for nearly Two Sandwich Islands. About three weeks there-Years. It is 335 feet Long, with a Breadth after two out of the three returned disabledinside the Coping Stone of 78 feet, and a Depth namely, the lorcha St. Andrew, commanded of 22 feet. At Spring Tides, the Depth of water by Barker, and the cutter Maid of Australia, on the Sill of the Dock is 18 to 181 feet, and at commanded by one Young, an Englishman Mr. Savory extended towards them every acsuors, with Lathes of all Sizes : hance to conduction and assistance, and enabled ed by the P. & O. Company. These either really had, or otherwise they pretended to have had, a quarrel with Barker, and throwing-themselves on Savory's hospitality, were received and entertained by him.
